

BP

Brooke Pearce, Au.D.

Professional Summary

Co-Founder and Vestibular Audiologist at Dizzy and Vertigo Institute of Los Angeles. Emphasis on collaboration with key opinion leaders in the industry to include executives, physicians, and internal groups within the medical field to advance the management of vestibular patients.

Work History

Dizzy And Vertigo Institute Of Los Angeles Audiology

Corp-Co-Founder/Vestibular Specialist

Los Angeles, California 02/2017-current

- Specializing in diagnosis, treatment and monitoring of patients, elite athletes and healthy patients internationally for vestibular and neurotologic diagnosis, neural functions and symptoms using a battery of oculomotor, vestibular, and reaction time tests.
- Builds and strengthens industry partnerships to drive collaboration, and engagement propelling business forward with adaptive audiological market changes
- Maintains agile, responsible organization with sustained patient growth by monitoring industry forecasts, honing protocols and adjusting diagnostic and treatment strategies.
- Aligns organizational objectives with company's mission, improving patient outcomes by developing integrated strategies.
- Participant in high-level hiring decisions for key leadership positions, senior hiring interviews and nominating new board members.
- Conducting target market research with industry competition, identify advantageous and emerging trends for new patient acquisition.
- Orchestrating positive media coverage and stakeholder relations.

drpearce@dizzyandvertigo.com

(310) 954-2207

8641 Wilshire Blvd, Suite 220

Beverly Hills, California 90211

- www.dizzyandvertigo.com

Skills

- Advanced knowledge, skills, insights, and techniques used for the evaluation and treatment of auditory and vestibular pathologies
- Advocacy for areas of need for effective policies and services

Education

- A.T. Still University of Health Sciences
Doctorate of Audiology, 2007
- Arizona State University
Bachelors of Science, Speech & Hearing Sciences, 2003
 - Recipient of Regents High Honors Endorsement Scholarship (RHHE)
 - Dean's List
 - Gamma Phi Beta Fraternity

Certification

- Board Certified Audiologist
- National LGBT Health Education

Private Practice - Director of Audiology

Newport Beach, California 3/2006 -02/2019

- Coordination of efforts of 35 team members engaged in vestibular diagnostics, interpretation, and rehabilitation
- Perform and interpret balance evaluations to include Vestibular evoked myogenic potentials (VEMP cervical & ocular), Vision Acuity Test (VAT), Computerized Dynamic Posturography (CDP), Advanced Rotational chair studies, Epley Omniax, Video Head Impulse Testing (VHIT), Video Nystagmography (VNG), and vestibular bedside testing.
- Audiological evaluations (air, bone, speech, otoacoustic emissions, tympanometry, acoustic reflexes, tinnitus evaluations and treatment)

Veterans Affairs - Graduate Audiology Extern

Long Beach, CA 01/2006 - 02/2006

Barrow Neurological Institute-Graduate Audiology Extern

Phoenix, AZ 02/2005-2006

Mayo Clinic Health System-Graduate Audiology Extern

Scottsdale, AZ 02/2005-07/2005

Phoenix Children's Hospital-Graduate Audiology Extern

Phoenix, AZ 03/2005-06/2005

Affiliations

- Member, American Academy Audiology
- Member, American Speech-Language-Hearing Association
- Member, American Balance Society
- Member, Zelta Alpha Chapter of Gamma Phi Beta

Advanced Continuing Education

- Pharmacology and Ototoxicity
- Neuroscience and Neuroimaging
- Medical-Ethical and Legal Issues Impacting Audiologists
- Healthcare and Regulatory Concerns
- Intra-operative Neurologic Monitoring
- Ocular Motor Assessment in Managing Concussion